

New Ornament is Here!

The Versailles Alumni Association is excited to announce the arrival of our 2010 School Ornament! This handsome pewter ornament is an artist's concept of the 1952 Versailles High School. The same quality is evident as was in last year's 1927 School ornament. These come in their own black velvet pouch and hang from a delicate orange cord. The inscription on the back reads "Versailles High School 1952-2010".

These limited ornaments will go on sale to the public on Friday, September 3rd at 4:00 p.m. as part of the "All Class Reunion" celebration. You may purchase your 2010 ornament at our welcome table in front of The Inn at Versailles for the introductory price of $15.00. Yes, we still have a few 2009 ornaments as well. Those will also be available at our welcome table.

If any remain our friends at Nancy O's Inspirational Gifts will have them after Labor Day. Don't wait; complete your collection right away!

The next ornament in this series will be the new 2010 Versailles School and it will be released for Poultry Days 2011. We will gladly take orders for that ornament as well. It's going to be a "Tiger Christmas" in Versailles!
